PROFILE

Wilson-Grau Associates offers the services of two consultants who provide monitoring and evaluation advice and support for development and social change organizations.

Ricardo Wilson-Grau is the principal consultant and resides in Brazil. He is a graduate of the University of Puerto Rico and Goddard College (BA and MA). Carmen Alaíde Wilson-Grau is the associate consultant based in Guatemala. She has a degree in political science and international relations at the University Rafael Landívar in Guatemala. Ricardo has worked as a consultant since 1993 and as an evaluator since 2003. Carmen Alaíde works as an evaluator since 2015.

We work in a team mode applying our combined fifty years of experience and knowledge working in NGOs, business and government sectors with projects and programs of economic, political and social development in more than eighty countries. Thus, we guarantee services of the highest quality with an equally high cost/benefit ratio. We are committed in our consultancy model to devote 25% of our time to learning and sharing our knowledge. This cooperative model contributes to the multiplying the fruits of our work while keeping us on the cutting edge of new developments in monitoring and evaluation.
